

HUMAN RIGHTS IN CHINA AWARENESS WEEK
October 22-28, 2007

- WHEREAS the Human Rights Torch Relay is an international campaign initiated by the Coalition to Investigate the Persecution of Falun Gong (CIPFG) to draw attention to China's appalling human rights situation and to press for change;
- WHEREAS CIPFG is sponsoring community events during the week of October 20-27, 2007 that will feature walking, running, singing, along with speeches by concerned individuals and groups;
- WHEREAS the Human Rights Torch Relay is anticipated to be in Canada in late April/May 2008;
- WHEREAS the U.S. State Department said in its 2007 annual report on religious freedom that China continues to repress Christians, Tibetan Buddhists, Muslim Uyghurs while the Falun Gong continued to face arrest, detention, and imprisonment, and there were credible reports of deaths due to torture and abuse...and the report also notes an apparent crackdown by the Chinese regime ahead of the 2008 Beijing Olympics;
- WHEREAS the Chinese regime illegally harvests bodily organs for sale from prisoners of conscience without consent;
- WHEREAS the Chinese regime has ignored a request made by CIPFG on June 8, 2007 to improve human rights in China, namely to:
- stop the persecution of Falun Gong immediately and release all practitioners incarcerated for their faith;
  - stop the persecution of friends, supporters and defense lawyers of Falun Gong practitioners;
  - hold discussions with CIPFG to arrange details on the opening up of labour camps, prisons, hospitals and related secretive facilities for inspection by CIPFG independent investigators;
- WHEREAS the CIPFG Human Rights Torch Relay support group is dedicated to righting these wrongs, ending human rights abuses in China and preserving the true Olympic spirit through this effort.

THEREFORE I hereby proclaim October 22-28, 2007 as:

“Human Rights in China Awareness Week, 2007”

In Golden, BC.

_____
Mayor Jim Deyle